Parent Advisory Committee for Special Education

Serving students with special needs throughout the Montcalm Area Intermediate School District (MAISD)

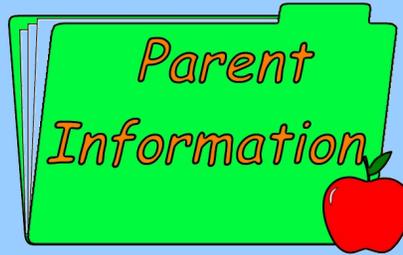

MAISD PAC

Parent Advisory Committee

The Parent Advisory Committee is made up of parents from each of the seven local school districts as well as those who attend Montcalm Area Intermediate School District classroom programs.

These schools include:

- ◆ Carson City-Crystal Area Schools
- ◆ Central Montcalm Public Schools
- ◆ Greenville Public Schools
- ◆ Lakeview Community Schools
- ◆ Montabella Community Schools
- ◆ Tri County Area Schools
- ◆ Vestaburg Community School
- ◆ Montcalm Area ISD Schools

PAC Goals:

... to stay informed about current trends impacting special education and host in-services on topics of parent interests.

... to act as a mentor for parents needing help with the special education process.

... to serve as a resource for the community and parents with special needs children.

... to develop and modify the MAISD special education plan.

... to offer parents support at Individual Educational Planning (IEP) Team meetings.

... to serve as a surrogate parent for those students in need.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Montcalm Area Intermediate School District Parent Advisory Committee is to promote partnerships among parents and educators that benefit students with disabilities.

PAC members are appointed by their local school board and approved by the Montcalm Area ISD Board of Education. PAC members represent the various disabilities of students enrolled in programs across the intermediate school district.

Questions regarding the Parent Advisory Committee for Special Education may be directed to any parent representative listed in this brochure. Each member would be happy to help you become more aware of the services available to you and your child.
